INTRODUCTION

Veterans Scotland's objectives are to relieve suffering hardship and distress and to promote the relief of need and education among:

- Men or women who have at any time served with any branch of the naval, military and air forces of the Crown or her allies
- Men or women who have at any time served with the Merchant Navy or the Nursing Services who have been involved in active service
- Wives, widows, husbands, widowers, partners, children and dependants of any of the above.

To do this, Veterans Scotland acts as a coordinating voice for the benefit of the ex-Service community in Scotland without in any way interfering with or jeopardising the work of ex-Service organisations acting individually or in concert.

This Directory of useful addresses and contacts is designed to assist in tracking down the appropriate resource to meet your needs. It has been produced by Veterans Scotland primarily to assist Veterans and those who work with them to access the first point of contact for a given subject. It is a work in progress and will be updated as we receive more information. If you feel we have missed out information which might be useful to Veterans please let us know at vsadmin@poppyscotland.org.uk and we will include it in the next issue.

Veterans Scotland is grateful for the work done by Warrant Officer Stephen Band at HQ 51 Brigade who produced the majority of the information contained in the guide.
